

We pay for these services because we want them. No one except those who are in control of XM broadcasting should be able to decide what is aired. The NAB should mind thier own business.